

2010 Ohio Masters Road Race State Championship

Georgetown, OH (Brown County)
Saturday, August 28, 2010

The 2010 Masters Road Race State Championship comes to southern Ohio on this beautiful 13-mile course with mild country rollers, a few twists and turns and two small climbs on the back side of the course. This will be a similar course to the one used for the 6th race of this year's Ohio Spring Race Series on May 2nd.

Masters riders are defined by USA Cycling as any rider with a racing age of 30 or older. Your racing age is the age you will be by December 31st of the current year. For example, a rider with a birth date of October 1, 1970 would only be 39 years old on the date of this race but actually has a racing age of 40 and thus would race with the 40-44 age group.
